WASHINGTON October 19 -- Mrs. Clark

The trial of Guiteau is fixed for November 7th The short dime allowed makes this appeal to the public necessary. Will the press kindly copy it?

He [Guiteau] attempted to lecture on religious subjects through several of the Northern States It is believed by many people in that connection who can, if they will, furnish evidence of his insanity. Will they not do so in the interests of patriotism, justice, humanity and metery?

Patriotism—Because if he is bung as a sane man it will be an eternal blot on our history.

Justice—So that it may not be said hereafter that he being denied by Heaven of the guidance of reason, was to be put to death contary to all law, human and divine.

Humanity and Mercy—That should prompt the laying seide of passi in and dealing with this case is Christian charity.

If any person knows of facts bearing on this question, will he not furnish me the information? No one will be called to testify unless it seems to be important to a just defense and a fair trial. From them the following facts were learned: The Indian party consisted of twelve bucks, with their families, and a remnant of Victoria's band, led by Victoria's brother. They have with them four other captives, whose ages range from seven to sixteen years, most all of them from New Mexico. The Indians are well equipped in every respect. Their intention is to proceed toward Chihuhuhua with the riew of exchanging their white captives for $91,693 for education, making the total receipts of the Board for the year $691,245, and e total expenditures $693,304, leaving a deficit of $2059.

Anxions to be Tried for Murder. Some light is thrown upon the contradic tions in the Cramer trial by the statement that the counsel for the defense has received letters from half a dozen persons, who claim that they killed Jennie Cramer, and offer to tell exactly how they did it. It is further learned that a young man, representing him-self as a New York drummer, informed the is wyer that he was with Jennie Cramer on the night of her drath, that she was acting wildly, and so forth, but this youth disap-peared, and of course his story was ascersined to be wholly false. All this seems to show that there are people always glad to figure in a murder trial, and ready to testify
